

Club 750: Greg Morton

OCT 31 / Jackson Lounge

This performance will run approximately 100 minutes, including one intermission.

At age 16, Greg Morton got his first job at a local department store as a P.A. announcer. That same voice that grabbed the attention of shoppers, went on to wow the judges, on season 14 of America's Got Talent. Howie Mandel said, "I can't believe there isn't a banner with your name on it in Vegas!"

Since then, he has performed and hosted AGT Superstars LIVE in Las Vegas at the Luxor Hotel. He was also the host of Mad Apple!, Cirque du Soleil's latest hit show at New York, New York. You may also recognize him from his multiple viral videos or his Dry Bar Comedy Special.

He has a new comedy album, 'In The Future,' currently in rotation on Sirius XM.
