Patti Murin is a celebrated actress, singer, and mental health advocate whose extensive career spans both Broadway and television. She is widely recognized for her standout performance as Princess Anna in Disney's Frozen on Broadway, as well as her role in the Tony® nominated musical Lysistrata Jones. Patti's stage credits also include memorable roles in Wicked, The Little Mermaid, and Chicago. On television, she has appeared in series such as Chicago Med, Royal Pains, and a plethora of Hallmark movies. She is an accomplished audiobook narrator, having had the honor of reading for esteemed authors such as Jodi Picoult, Christina Lauren, Katherine Center, and many others. Beyond her impressive professional achievements, Patti is a passionate advocate for mental health, leveraging her experiences to promote awareness and encourage open conversations about mental wellness. She is also a thrilled and exhausted mother to two dynamic girls, Cecily and Lorelai, and wife to fellow actor and overall excellent human, Colin Donnell. In general, she's just happy to be here with all of you tonight.
